

HISTORY WARDROBE

TALKS WITH TWO PRESENTERS
£700 + EXPENSES*

Dior's New Look

Paris 1947 - Dior's new styles started a battle of the hemlines in the world of fashion. How will British women update their war-weary wardrobes to achieve the glam new look..?

Treasures & Tat

Come rummage through the history of cast-off clothes, from flea markets and charity shops to online bargains, sharing behind-the-scenes stories of fabulous finds.

Medieval Madams

Houppelandes, hose and kirtles... How to dress your best in the 15th century, with gorgeous garments and riotous readings from a spirited age.

Fashion Revolution

Rebellious trends that broke all the rules, from Marie Antoinette to mini-skirts, hotpants and punk!

Halfway to Hollywood

Sensational styles from the golden age of cinema. How ordinary women recreated the glamour of the silver screen, and the stars who inspired them.

A Very Victorian Christmas

The Scrooge sisters dress for a festive party with wonderful 19th Century gowns... and a visit from the ghosts of fashions Past, Present and Future!

TALKS WITH ONE PRESENTER
£500 + EXPENSES*

Fashion on the Orient Express

We embark on a journey into fashions fit for the most famous train ride of all in the 1930s - a golden age of travel. It's rumoured Hercule Poirot is onboard...

Parachute Fashion

What do aeronauts, knickers and brides have in common...? Find out in this exhilarating exploration of the fabrics of flight, from stitching aeroplanes to pilfering parachutes.

Love & Marriage

A charming insight into the fashions of romance, from dating to divorce... and beautiful bridal gowns of course.

You can also book an author talk with Lucy Adlington to speak about her bestselling histories, The Dressmakers of Auschwitz and Four Red Sweaters

All talks last for about 1 1/4 hours

*We charge travel expenses at 50p per mile to/from York, and accommodation, where necessary, £95 per night

www.historywardrobe.com
lucy@historywardrobe.com

Tel 07973 666 634

 @historywardrobe

